Learning Support Assistants (SEN)

Required ASAP

30 Hours per week

Band 4 Points 10 - 12 TTO plus 2 days

(£11,471 - £11,682)

Carlton Bolling is an Outstanding school which has been on a rapid improvement journey over recent years, with results in 2017 within the top 5% of schools nationally. This progress was recognised by Ofsted who praised the "Highly aspirational vision for the school".

Staff enjoy working at Carlton Bolling and are supported and encouraged to lead and develop practice "Pupils and staff are enthused and excited to excel. Pupils and staff work together within a harmonious community, where they are fully supported": Ofsted, November 2017.

Although we are rated Outstanding, we are still moving forward at the same trajectory on our path to become one of the top 1% of schools in the country. If you share this vision, and are prepared to put in the effort to attain this goal, we would like to hear from you. We have a vacancy for a Learning Support Assistants who will support students with Special Education Needs within their lessons and occasionally within the small group setting called "TEC". The successful candidate will work closely with the SENCo and colleagues who teach children with SEN and help the students to achieve excellent levels of progress in their lessons. The ability to speak an additional European language (particularly Hungarian) would be an advantage.

The successful candidate will have:

- Experience of working with young people
- The ability to work well as part of a team
- Patience, tenacity and compassion
- Outstanding communication skills
- Good numeracy/literacy skills

We will offer:

- Excellent training, development and career progression opportunities
- A friendly and hardworking team of colleagues
- The opportunity to work in a role with tremendous job satisfaction

If you think this might be the role for you, please contact Human Resources at Carlton Bolling College for an information pack and an application form.

If you would like to visit the school, please contact Claire Hurley, SENCo
